

Dear Friends,

Thank you for your kind note for my graduation.

I thought that you would be snowed under now, Harold, with your work, and is sorry to hear of your wife's injury and brother-in-law's death.

In any case, I hope you will ^{both} take a rain check and come down, maybe this summer. Will write long letter later. Again thanks.

Sincerely, Jim ^{B.A.} ('72)
